

I fully support the New Jersey "Do Not Call" list and emphatically oppose any attempts to change it. In fact, it should be made stronger in my opinion to provide jail sentences for those who violate the wishes for privacy of those people on the list.

My home is my sanctuary and it is a violation of my right to privacy. Someone else's right to free speech should NOT allow them to disturb someone else's privacy if they choose not to hear their message.

This holds true for e-mail as well. Anyone claiming a right of free speech in sending junk e-mail to people who don't want it, should be thrown in jail for violating their privacy.

Do we need a new Constitutional Amendment guaranteeing the Right of Privacy??? Perhaps!!
